

SGG Senior Consultant

Senior Consultants at SGG work closely with SGG's principals, with a focus on delivering strategy consulting engagements. A Senior Consultant can expect to be involved in:

- Facilitation of client team meetings
- Creating business valuation models and using them to drive deep insight into our clients' business opportunities
- Presenting the results of their work to client teams and executives
- Teaching and developing new IP both with clients and internally

Our project teams are small and fast-moving. As such, they require that each member take a leadership role in one or more areas of project delivery. SGG puts a very high focus on personal development so you can expect to learn and grow fast. You should be comfortable with a very interactive style of consulting, working closely with the client team members.

Qualifications

Basic Qualifications:

- 2-3 years of strategy consulting experience
- Facility with standard business software, particularly Excel™ and PowerPoint™, is required
- An advanced degree in business economics, or decision sciences is preferred
- A background or exposure to Decision Analysis and/or Game Theory, or experience in oil and gas, would be a plus.

Job Requirements:

- Ability to think creatively and delve deeply into business issues
- Ability to work creatively and analytically in a problem-solving environment
- Ability to meet client travel requirements, when applicable
- Ability to challenge, innovate and lead
- Strong communication (written and oral), interpersonal and relationship-building skills
- Willingness and flexibility to work across a wide variety of strategic and operational roles across industries
- Ability to think independently but work within a team; eagerness to contribute in a team-oriented environment
